

Eduardo Herrera Lezama

December 9, 1987 - August 29, 2019

FORT WORTH - Eduardo Hererra Lezama (Richard, Yayo, Tio, Lalo, Ed, etc.) - - loving husband, son, brother, cousin, uncle and friend to all he met; died Wednesday Aug. 29, 2019.

Eduardo was born Dec. 9, 1987, in Tlaxcala Mexico, but got to Texas as soon as he could. He arrived in Fort Worth when he was 14 years old and married the love of his life Oct. 9, 2013.

Eduardo knew the concept of hard work and long hours, often holding down two jobs and going two weeks or more without a day off. But he knew how to enjoy his time off, visiting the beaches of Galveston, riding a train through the mountains of New Mexico, and exploring the hills of Tennessee.

Eduardo was always willing to lend a hand, any time he heard of someone needing help, he was on the phone asking what they need, how he could help, or he would just show up, roll up his sleeves and pitch in. That was just that kind of guy he was.

He was a responsible young man providing for wife and family in any way possible. Family was everything to him. Eduardo was mechanically inclined, he could fix the engine of a car, build a new deck, and he was even pursuing a certification as an electrician.

He was a man of his word, his word was gold. He was dependable. He was a good friend. He cannot be replaced.

Survivors: Wife, Kelly; mother, Antonia; sister, Yuridia; brother, Oscar; cousin, Jasmin; niece, Brooklyn; and nephews, Joshua and Zachary.

“ The day after Kelly and Richards (Eduardo) wedding we were at Bill and Sues house with Kelly and Richard. I pulled Richard aside and talked about how he and Kelly met. After talking with him I knew then that he was someone special for Kelly. At the same time I had to let him know that he better not hurt my girl, that I was from Chicago and "I knew people". We laughed and laughed and laughed. Did you have the opportunity to see the slippers Richard decorated for Kelly for her wedding day. He was so talented and creative and did such a wonderful job painting Monarch butterflies on them for her. Who would do that for Kelly except Richard. I loved and liked him. I will miss Richard.

I hurt for all who knew him and for those who never knew him. Like most, I'm having trouble accepting and understanding this. Kelly, you know I love you to the moon and back. If there is anything you need, even if just talking in the middle of the night, please call. Richard was a wonderful man, the best. There is no one like Richard.
Love, Aunt Nancy
