“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Gomez family during this difficult time. Much love to all of you.

Since we were both raised by our grandparents, I had the pleasure of enjoying 17 Summers with her. Grandma called her Conche but the rest of us called her Tonche or Lupe. She was a gem, not just a cousin but a friend. We had fun together. She taught me how to blow bubble gum bubbles which is important when you're a kid. We played school. We were roomies and shared the front bedroom. When I got old enough to shave, I would shave her too. If I got lazy about it, she would not hesitate to ask me to groom her. We would take the dog for daily walks and go to the corner store to buy candy and soda. Her fav was a zero candy bar and RC. She loved boiled eggs and I came to appreciate them too. I think I of her when I scrub pots and pans because she taught me how to use elbow grease to make it shine them shine again. She was so cute when she would join me to workout in the living room. She would smile at me while we were exercising and I would smile back at her. She could light up a room with her big smile and happy dance or chase you out of one if you passed to close to her coin purse or piggy bank. She could sweet talk you out of a dollar in no time! We relaxed on hot Summer days under the shade trees eating watermelon, cantaloupe and corn on the cob. Life was simple but it was good. Thank you for all of the sweet memories. You will forever be alive in my heart. Rest in peace honey. I love you.
