“ We had a warm friendship from the moment she joined the Covenant Class at our First United Methodist Church. She loved to greet everyone with a smile, and had many loving friends. She's missed already!

“ Mrs. Hazel loved our fresh farm eggs and home cooked beans and rice. She was very charismatic and a sweet person. We had many conversations at her kitchen table. She loved to ask questions and to be in the know. Loved that about her. My daughter and I handpicked wildflowers from a field nearby and she said she hadn't seen those types of flowers in a long time. I'm glad we brought a smile to her face. We once took her to the farm so she could see the chickens, horses, and goats. It reminded her of her childhood. It gave her much happiness to see the farm. We're happy we got to spend time with her. We will miss her dearly.

Sending prayers and condolences to her family.

“ Mrs. Hazel was a beautiful soul. I remember her telling me stories of when she was younger and how she always loved beans and cornbread. Mrs. Hazel loved my moms cooking. Especially the rice and beans. I think it reminded her of her mother’s cooking. I’m so glad that we got to share these moments with her throughout the years. I’d come in and grab a cookie from her cookie jar and she’d always tell me to grab a plate (I only ever had one). So sweet. She was like a grandmother to me. We loved to talk about my students and how they were doing in class. She graduated From Texas Wesleyan, just as I did. She always wanted to go back to see the campus, but we never found a chance to go. I’ll make sure to visit the campus with her in mind very soon. I’ll miss seeing her drive out of her garage to get her mail. I’ll miss her wave goodbye. She was amazing and will be remembered that way.

Sending love and condolences to her family.

“ She was truly a Godly woman. Everyone that came to know her truly loved her. I have been in Bible Study with her at Cana for over ten years. She was like a mom to me, I will truly miss her. I was blessed by her knowledge of God’s word. Today she is right where she longed to be, with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. My love and prayers to all of her sweet family.
