

Lorean Fay Petrie

April 26, 1938 - June 19, 2020

AZLE - Lorean Fay Petrie was an angel that walked this earth. Never was there more of a pure hearted Proverbs lady than she was. She was a lifelong homemaker for her profession. It is awesome when your job is one you love. She loved tending to her family in every way possible. She would come at a moment's notice if you needed help. She would show up with what was on your grocery list even if she had not seen your list. That is how much she was in tune with God and the Holy Spirit. She cleaned the church before and after each meeting without being asked and with zero pay. She was a servant at heart and did it with a heart full of love.

She loved her kids immensely and their spouses as if she bore them. Her grandkids and great-grandkids were what made her eyes twinkle. She loved them and they loved her as is attested in the following copied posts.

"My precious Grandma went home to her Savior yesterday afternoon. While I find peace knowing where she will be for all of eternity, free now from a mind that failed her many years ago, my heart still breaks knowing I'll never hug her again in this life, and that my kids will never truly understand what a gem she was. She had a heart of gold, and I will forever be grateful that I got to be her Granddaughter."

"I've struggled with finding the words to express how I feel... but today, my Grandma Petrie went home to be with the Lord! She was so loved by everyone who knew her! She lived her life in service and helped everyone she could. As much as we miss her now, I know she is in a much better place and is loving being with my PawPaw Petrie and my brother again!"

"It is with a very heavy heart, that I let you all know thank you for the continuous prayers for my grandmother and family, and that my Grandma Petrie is pain free and has gone home to be with the Lord. Her suffering is finally over."

"Please continue to keep my mother and my aunts and uncles and cousins in your prayers as she was a HUGE impact to all of us."

"Hudson and I will miss you dearly Grandma Petrie."

"It is with a sad heart I say sweet Grandma Petrie gained her angel wings earlier today. We are all so sad and heartbroken yet so happy to know she is finally free of pain and suffering and to just picture the amazingly beautiful and glorious homecoming she had today. She is already smiling and whole again and walking the golden streets of Heaven. That is exactly what she lived her life for. I know she was ever so happy to be reunited with her parents, siblings, my Pawpaw Petrie and my precious cousin, Josh and I hoe she already found and hugged my sister for me. She was an amazing Christian woman who loved her family more than anything. We will all have a small hole in our hearts with her loss. We love you so much grandma and it's not goodbye, but see ya again! but see ya again RIP my precious sweet angel. Love you always."

"it's days like today that you really cherish your loved ones. Sandi I'm so very sorry for your loss. Grandma Petrie was a very sweet person. The world would be a better place if we all acted as she did."

"I remember growing up being taught to have the utmost respect for Mrs. Petrie and I better be on my best behavior when around her."

"Y'all definitely had a good one, I truly believe that in her last days she is still bringing someone to the Lord or she would be seated there with him already."

"Words can't describe the feeling that we all may feel at this time. a beautiful Mom, Grandma, and GG is no longer suffering. She gained her wings and is now Home. Vicky Barnett and Lupe Petrie (mom), you guys did all you could making her feel loved I admire you both. To Papa (Dad) and my uncles showing her how much they loved her the strength it took all of you is amazing. Even though we were not her biological grandkids she never treated us differently.

She will be missed by many."

"Jacobs Grandma Petrie, my kids GG gained her angel wings today will always remember the bond she had with my kids and the way she looked at them. She absolutely adored all her grandkids and great-grandkids."

"Please pray for Jacobs family. We knew this was coming and we are so happy she is in peace and she is no longer in pain, but does not make the loss much easier. We will miss you GG! Save a seat for us."

"My heart is hurting and is so heavy right now.. you are such a sweet angel, now my guardian angel. My sweet GG, I never really fathomed that two days ago would be the last time I'd hold your hand. I still remember our little lunch dates with the rest of the great grandkids when we would come over and visit like it was yesterday. To hear your sweet words and your sweet laugh one more time would be everything. I love you so much GG, I'll see you again soon."

She raised her 3 sons and baby girl to know and love the Lord. We know where she is. She is reunited with her husband in Heaven now. She never dated or had any interest in doing so after he died 27 years ago. She never wanted anything more than a hug and a kiss and I love you. That was reward enough for her. She loved the Lord with all her heart and devoted her entire life to serving others: from picking people up to take them to church, and taking them home to taking meals and or groceries to the less fortunate.

She loved talking about Jesus and leading others to the Lord. Now she has gained her reward.
