

Margarita Aragon

October 31, 1935 - February 27, 2021

FORT WORTH - The life of Margarita Calleros Aragon from her native place Parral Chihuahua, Mexico, became the American Dream for a young, iron-willed, determined spirit willing to take the chance to pursue her love and admiration for this marvelous country to start a new life with endless possibilities with her newly wedded husband, David Aragon in 1957. Upon arrival to this new country, the young couple faced many struggles and issues preventing the young couple of not being able to return to their hometown and consciously decided to remain though their present life looked very bleak. It was during these difficulties that Margarita & David petitioned to the "patroness of the Americas" La Virgen de Guadalupe with full confidence requesting for the Virgencita's protection and maternal love who never forsakes all her children in times of need.

Margarita died peacefully knowing she was guided by God's Light into His loving arms on Saturday, February 27th, 2021.

She is the perfect example of an immigrant with hunger and determination to follow her own path dwelling in possibilities. In the early 1980's, Margarita and her husband, David achieved their ultimate "American Dream" by becoming American Citizens of this United States of America.

Family was a constant in Margarita's life, especially her "tesoros" her grandchildren, as well as serving All Saints Catholic community in various roles, including a strong, loving call of a servant to be a Eucharistic Minister. Through the years, Margarita mentored and encouraged other English and Spanish-speaking lay persons to answer the call of serving our Lord in the Eucharistic Ministry leading them to become more involved in the Hispanic church community.

Margarita enjoyed crocheting afghans for her loved ones. Nana, as called by her grandchildren made a special one for her grandson to raffle to raise money given that he would be traveling to China as one of the ambassadors with People to People for two weeks. A definite opportunity for a once in a lifetime; a definite family project to support. Another craft hobby was making handkerchiefs with various embroidered patterns she created to give away to close friends along the way.

Both her family and her grandchildren along with those who crossed her path of life as within the All Saints Community were beneficiaries of this dedicated person's love and devotion throughout her life with the heart of a servant.

Margarita was preceded in death by her parents, Ventura and Ceferina Calleros; her brother, Antonio Calleros; and her beloved husband, David Aragon."

Margarita is survived by her adult children: daughter, Patricia (James); sons, Noel D. (Norma) and Alberto (Norma); grandchildren, Alexander Aragon Clingan, Natalie Aragon, Nicole Aragon, and David Daniel Aragon; Margarita is also survived by her sisters, Soledad Calleros, Rosa E. Calleros, Hortencia Calleros, and Socorro Calleros Garcia along with; nephew, Sergio Garcia as well as a host of nieces and nephews and cousins. She will be dearly missed by all.

Memorials: The family asks that in lieu of flowers memorial be made in Margarita's honor to All Saints Catholic School.
