

Pamela H. Stansbury

October 4, 1956 - September 9, 2019

PROVIDENCE FORGE, VA. - Pamela H. Stansbury, 62, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, Sept. 9, 2019, in Richmond, Virginia.

Pam was born Oct. 4, 1956, in Fort Sill, Okla., to Ronald and Sue Lucas Hogue. Pam graduated from Southwest High School in Fort Worth, Texas in 1975. She attended Texas Tech University where she met and married the love of her life, Mike, and started an amazing, fulfilling life as a loving wife and mother of three spanning a 21-year Air Force career. In 2006, she and Mike moved the family to Providence Forge, Va., where she quickly reestablished the family, home, and an incredible network of new neighbors and dear friends. Her big heart, smile, sense of humor and deep love for life was unrelenting and touched everyone she met and everything she did.

She was preceded in death by her father, Ronald Hogue; and brother, Mike - both US Veterans.

She will be unimaginably missed, never forgotten and forever in our hearts. Survivors: Husband of more than 39 years, Mike Stansbury; sons, Aaron and Matt; daughter, Rachael; grandchildren, Lucas and Aubrie; mother, Sue Hogue; sister, Tracie; and brother, Mark.

Memorials: In lieu of flowers, you may make a contribution in Pam's name to an organization of your choice that supports disabled veterans.

“ Dear Stansbury family. Our children went to school together at Heritage HS in Newport News. Aaron and Chris were best friends. Pam and I always shared our love of our sons playing soccer together. Pam was the most caring person. Chris and Aaron have remained friends to this day. Your family is so wonderful and Pam was a great light. Our heart goes out to your family. We love you all and we will always have you all in our thoughts forever. Linda and Wayne Brooks
Newport News, Va.

“ So sorry for you and your family's loss Tracie. I was in Southwest HS tennis my junior and senior year with Pam (my favorite class). I remember her being a gracious, caring, fun, and extremely non-judgmental/accepting individual back then, mature for her age. I knew her as a sweet, trustworthy friend, with a listening/empathetic ear those two years; even though our relationship was an acquaintance friendship at best. Tennis practice early mornings was the only place I saw her. Fast forward 16 years after graduation - 1991. I was stationed in RAF Feltwell, United Kingdom where I was stationed in the Air Force, married to my high school sweetheart Theresa Baker Mullins with 4 young kiddos and one on the way. After one of my son's recreational soccer games played on the RAF Feltwell soccer fields, this lady comes running across the field with a big smile on her face, and asked me, "Are you Terry Mullins?" And I said "yes." She said, "I knew it, Oh my gosh, I am Pam Hogue." I said, "Southwest High School tennis class right? I remember, Gordon Broward and I use to beat you and your partner in doubles all the time." She laughed and said, "Ha, not the way I remember it." We enjoyed a short ten minute catch up on life over 16 years and gave each other a hug goodbye, and I have not seen her since.

Just a short story of how naturally sweet, friendly, approachable, and inviting your sister was. Speaks a lot about the family she grew up in. I suspect she touched a lot of lives with that friendly smile and caring demeanor I remember about her. Again, so sorry for your loss, I hope to honor her life and service to our country, with my quiet presence on Tuesday. May God's peace and loving embrace hold your family up during this difficult time.

“ For Pam,

She will be missed but never forgotten. She had a beautiful life but there were times she needed assistance from the medical field.

Every aspect of Pam's life, no matter how tragic, My Big (little sister) won every battle. Weather a surgical procedure, a fall off a ravine, a car wreck, even a personal disagreement with an individual, she would win her battles.

Pam changed people with her smile and her ability to see into ones soul. She won all her battles sometimes quietly but she knew she would persevere. She was so accepting to things she could not change, but in her way it did not matter because like I said earlier she won all her battles.

Who can say at the time of their uncontrollable death that, which is inevitable for us all. They Won in life, My Pammie, although to soon (DID)

Her loving brother MARK

“ We little knew that morning God was to call your name. In life we loved your dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Pam, I love you more than I can say - I miss you unbearably but will see you again one day.

Tracie Hogue - September 15 at 06:21 PM

“ To my Pammie. God saw you were getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around you, and whispered, "Come to Me." With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, that He only takes the best. God looked around the garden and saw an empty space. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face and put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful for He only takes the best. He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb, So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine." It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone; for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

I am sending a donation to Freedom of Hope (Pams charity for Veterans)
