

Raul V. Aviles

September 28, 1940 - May 14, 2021

FORT WORTH - Raul Aviles passed away peacefully at the age of 80 at UT Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas.

Born September 24, 1940, in Mexico, Raul would grow up to meet the love of his life, Olivia, and live in various towns in the USA. Finally selecting to plant his roots in Fort Worth, Texas. Raul and his family grew together doing contracting jobs for building and remodeling homes. Raul, known for his sense of humor and generosity, spending his extra time with his family and at the casinos.

Survived by, wife of 55 years, Olivia Aviles; Daughters, Patricia (Roberto Puzas) and Bertha; Sons, Raul Jr., Arnoldo (Zoe Lien), and Gustavo (Lorrie) Aviles; Proud grandfather of, Alejandro Grande, Jacob, Gloria, and Jesse Cabral and Adrian Aviles, Andrea Aviles, and Alec Aviles; Brother, of Ernestina and the late Rita Aviles. Further survived by nieces, nephews and other relatives and many friends.

Raul will be remembered by the garden of memories that grew into a forest of love and dedication to his family. If his family was in any discomfort, he was persistent to provide for them.

Raul was the electrician that could light up the darkest home and a roofer that could block out any storm. The father that holds his children close and the grandfather that held his grandchildren in his heart.

“ I didn't handle your Rosary very well. I thought I was stronger than I am... This morning when picking out your sunflowers I heard your voice. "Mira! Mira q bonito". (Look, look how pretty) I smiled and said yes they are. I'm buying them for you. I left there feeling a little better because you let me know you're still with me. I pictured you walking into heaven pausing, smiling and saying "Mira! Mira q bonito! I have no doubt when my time comes you will be there to walk me in and you'll pause like you did on our walks and say "Mira hija! Mira q bonito! I miss you Matari. Thank you for loving me like a daughter, I love you Matari (how I pronounced My Daddy). I miss you so much thank you for letting me know you're ok.
