“ I will miss you dearly Sharon. I knew I could always depend on you working the Stock Show. I never had to worry about "your" door! I will miss your witty comments and all of your funny stories. I always loved joking around with you and being able to count on you to help me play tricks on other people. You were always there for me! It was a great honor to have you take over my old ticket door. I loved being your "boss lady" and I will always treasure the stock show memories we made along the way. I love you dearly.

“ Sharon was my best friend, more than a friend more like my sister, I've known her since high school, there is not any part of my life she hasn't been part of in some way. She made me part of her family when I had none of my own. She made my life so much more fun and exciting than it would have been without her. We did practically everything together .thank you making my life much more than it would have been. You will be very much missed my dear friend. Until we meet again love you !

“ "Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day... unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed, and very dear."

—Unknown

Sharon,

I feel so very privileged to have spent sometime with you this past year. Our serious talks and comical conversations will never leave my heart. The stories you told me about a hundred times about family and friends always put a smile on my face. The stories you told me about all the people that have passed through the doors of your home and that you have taken in for different reasons and periods of time. Taken in without judgement. I don't know many people more selfless and loving than you! There will definitely be a place in heaven for you! If there were more people like you in this world, it would certainly be a better place! Please know you are very much loved and missed by many. It will be rough for a while but knowing we have a piece of your heart with us, it will be a little bit easier each day.

Love love love you!

“ Sharon was a dear friend and coworker who I was blessed to share many wonderful memories with. She's an angel in disguise, and let me tell you some of diguises were crazy to funny, but she was still an angel who always matched from her earrings down to her socks. Sharon was a real trooper when you played a joke on her, but she would get you back eventually. Sharon you are one of a kind, there's nobody else like you. You will be missed but never forgotten and I will always love you.

“ Sharon sent me an angel; on the front of the angel was "I am blessed" and on the back Sharon wrote, "because...Sharon is my cousin." I love it. One year Sharon and Harlon met Russel and me in Branson, Missouri. We saw three concerts; Neal McCoy, The Oak Ridge Boys (front row seat), and Mel Tillis and Pam Tillis. What I remember about that trip is when we went to Silver Dollar City and there were these stores with miniature villages set up and Sharon taking pictures of them, so she had ideas for her own villages. We had a great time. We have many, many memories of Sharon and we will miss her very much. With much love to her family.

“ Sharon always wanted the best for me. She rescued me as a child (sometimes forced to as the babysitter) and as a young adult she gave me a home, food and family. She made me fudge often. It's her fault I'm fat lol. She gave me hard advice whether I wanted it or not. She always knew what I was saying or feeling and she helped me without any strings. She inspired me to be a better person and even though we came from the same family she could tell some very funny stories! When she talked about my dad she never candy coated the story. I always knew I could trust her. She would hold my secrets, she let me express my feelings and she never held a grudge against me. Even as we got older she wanted to make sure I was taken care of. I loved her deeply and I know she loved me. She was more like a good sister than a cousin. To say she left a hole in my life is an understatement. Life looks weird without her and mom but I'm sure they are in heaven glad to be together again. Soon, very soon we will reunite.

“ I always considered Sharon as a bonus mom growing up. She lived on my street and was my Girl Scout leader for so many years. She taught me so many life lessons and she's included in some of my fondest memories. She always made sure we had fun whatever it was we may have been doing from camping to our trip to Austin to her awesome Halloween parties. She was definitely one of a kind, full of spunk, always spoke her mind and always had lots of love to give. She will be truly missed. Harlon, Neil and Amy, I love y'all and send my very deepest condolences.

“ Sharon was such a heart warming lady who would do anything for anyone. She welcomed me like one of her own which meant so much. She loves and cared for everyone that would come in her path. There was never a dull moment when she was around. Love laughter and stories were always so great. I will truly miss her. If you were in her life you know what I'm talking about. She was loved by many people that she touched there lives.

“ Sharon and I have sat on her kitchen many times with her Aunt Joy, laughing about catching guys trying to steal different things in the neighborhood. And when Doug put a dead snake in the mailbox and it was dark when she found it, I thought she was going to beat him. I will miss the good times with her
